DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINING Whether there has been a violation of the Mortgage Broker Practices Act of Washington by: LAW FIRM OF MACEY, ALEMAN, AND SEARNS, and KELLY PATRICK SIBERT, Loan Modification Managing Member, Respondents.	No.: C-12-1058-13-CO01 CONSENT ORDER

COMES NOW the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions (Director), through his designee Deborah Bortner, Division Director, Division of Consumer Services, the Law Firm of Macey, Aleman, and Searns (Respondent Macey, Aleman, and Searns), and Kelly Patrick Sibert (Respondent Sibert), and finding that the issues raised in the above-captioned matter may be economically and efficiently settled, agree to the entry of this Consent Order. This Consent Order is entered pursuant to chapter 19.146 of the Revised Code of Washington (RCW), and RCW 34.05.060 of the Administrative Procedure Act, based on the following:

AGREEMENT AND ORDER

The Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Consumer Services (Department) and Respondents have agreed upon a basis for resolution of the matters alleged in Statement of Charges No. C-12-1058-SC-01 (Statement of Charges), entered September 27, 2012, (copy attached hereto). Pursuant to chapter 19.146 RCW, the Mortgage Broker Practices Act (Act), and RCW 34.05.060 of the Administrative Procedure Act, Respondents hereby agree to the Department's entry of this Consent Order and further agree that the issues raised in the above-captioned matter may be economically and efficiently settled by entry of this Consent Order. The parties intend this Consent Order to fully resolve the issues raised in the Statement of Charges. Respondents are agreeing not to contest the Statement of Charges in consideration of the terms of this Consent Order, and do not admit to any wrongdoing by its entry.

Based upon the foregoing:

A. Jurisdiction. It is AGREED that the Department has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the activities discussed herein.

B. Waiver of Hearing. It is AGREED that Respondents have been informed of the right to a hearing before an administrative law judge, and waived their right to a hearing and any and all administrative review of the issues raised in this matter, or of the resolution reached herein, by failing to timely file an Application for Adjudicative Hearing.

C. Dismissal of Petition for Judicial Review. It is AGREED that Respondents shall dismiss their petition for review with prejudice, case number 13-2-01397-2, filed in Thurston County Superior Court. Such dismissal shall be filed no later than 10 days after the withdrawal of the Final Order identified in paragraph D. It is further AGREED that each side will bear their own costs related to the petition for judicial review.

D. Withdrawal of Final Order. The Director has determined that the entry of this Consent Order is in the best interest of the consumers, as it would bring restitution to the consumers without further delay in consumers recovering the funds owed them. It is AGREED that Nunc Pro Tunc Second Corrected Final Order C-12-1058-13-FO04[1] will be withdrawn, and to the extent that it is affirmed and incorporated within said order, by reference, Final Order C-12-1058-13-FO01 will be withdrawn as well.

E. No Admission of Liability. The parties intend this Consent Order to fully resolve the Statement of Charges and agree that Respondents do not admit to any wrongdoing by its entry.

[1] Nunc Pro Tunc Second Corrected Final Order C-12-1058-13-FO04 supersedes or incorporates all prior Final Orders (C-12-1058-13-FO01, C-12-1058-13-FO02, and C-12-1058-13-FO03) issued in this matter. With the withdrawal of the Nunc Pro Tunc Second Corrected Final Order, the prior Final Orders issued in this matter have no further effect.

F. Cease and Desist. It is AGREED that Respondents will cease and desist from engaging in the business of a mortgage broker or loan originator or participating in the conduct of the affairs of any mortgage broker subject to licensure by the Director in the State of Washington, unless and until proper licensure is obtained or an exemption from the Act applies.

G. Fine. It is AGREED that Respondent Macey, Aleman, and Searns shall pay a fine to the Department in the amount of $5,000 in the form of a cashier's check made payable to the "Washington State Treasurer," upon entry of this Consent Order.

H. Restitution. It is AGREED that Respondents have paid restitution in the amount of $9,036 and provided documentation of restitution paid to the following Washington consumers:

Consumer	Amount Paid
C.B.	$1,195
B.C.	$1,200
Y.C.	$3,446
J.D.	$2,000
D.R.	$1,195

I. Rights of Non-Parties. It is AGREED that the Department does not represent or have the consent of any person or entity not a party to this Consent Order to take any action concerning their personal legal rights. It is further AGREED that for any person or entity not a party to this Consent Order, this Consent Order does not limit or create any private rights or remedies against Respondents, limit or create liability of Respondents, or limit or create defenses of Respondents to any claims.

J. Investigation Fee. It is AGREED that Respondents shall pay to the Department an investigation fee of $2,597, in the form of a cashier's check made payable to the "Washington State Treasurer," upon entry of this Consent Order. The Fine and Investigation Fee may be paid together in one $7,597 cashier's check made payable to the "Washington State Treasurer."

K. Authority to Execute Order. It is AGREED that the undersigned have represented and warranted that they have the full power and right to execute this Consent Order on behalf of the parties represented.

L. Non-Compliance with Order. It is AGREED that Respondents understand that failure to abide by the terms and conditions of this Consent Order may result in further legal action by the Director. In the event of such legal action, Respondents may be responsible to reimburse the Director for the cost incurred in pursuing such action, including but not limited to, attorney fees.

M. Voluntarily Entered. It is AGREED that Respondents have voluntarily entered into this Consent Order, which is effective when signed by the Director's designee.

N. Completely Read, Understood, and Agreed. It is AGREED that Respondents have read this Consent Order in its entirety and fully understand and agree to all of the same.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINING Whether there has been a violation of the Mortgage Broker Practices Act of Washington by: LAW FIRM OF MACEY, ALEMAN & SEARNS, and KELLY PATRICK SIBERT, Loan Modification Managing Member, Respondent.	No. C-12-1058-13-FO04 NUNC PRO TUNC SECOND CORRECTED ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND AFFIRMATION OF FINAL ORDER DATED MARCH 7, 2013

THIS MATTER originally came before Scott Jarvis, Director ("Director") of the Department of Financial Institutions ("Department"), as Presiding Officer, upon Petition for Reconsideration, dated March 25, 2013 ("Petition"), of a Final Default Order by the Department's Division of Consumer Services ("Division") dated March 7, 2013 ("Final Order") against Respondents Law Firm of Macey, Aleman & Searns ("Law Firm") and Kelly Patrick Sibert ("Sibert"); and the Director, having given this matter due consideration as hereinafter described, and having determined that the Petition has no merit in light of the Record on Reconsideration enumerated below, the Director entered the Corrected Final Order No. C-12-1058-13-FO03, on May 31, 2013. Subsequently, while this matter was on Petition for Judicial Review, the Director determined sua sponte that there was an error in the Corrected Final Order No. C-12-1058-13-FO03 with respect to two documents referred to therein as "1st Clark Letter" and "2nd Clark Letter."

NOW, THEREFORE, the Director makes the following findings by way of denying the Petition for Reconsideration:

1.0 CORRECTION OF RECORD

1.1 Only One "Clark Letter" Apparently Existed. Apparently, there was never both a "1st Clark Letter" and a "2nd Clark Letter." As the Director has apparently now discovered from the Certified Record on Judicial Review, only the "2nd Clark Letter" apparently existed. Therefore, the Record on Reconsideration is hereby amended and further corrected to state as the record on reconsideration (see Subsection 2.15 below) the document previously known as "2nd Clark Letter," and the previous reference to an apparently non-existent "1st Clark Letter" is deleted from the Record on Reconsideration set forth in the new Section 2.0 below.

1.2 Error Had No Significant Bearing on Substance of Deliberation. In Corrected Final Order No. C-12-1058-13-FO03, the Director set forth all the documents that he believed at the time were to be considered on Petition for Reconsideration. But the communication(s) of Mary Clark were not ultimately dispositive in the Director's decision-making. (Note: "1st Clark Letter" and 2nd Clark Letter" are not subsequently referred to in Corrected Final Order No. C-12-1058-13-FO03.)

1.3 Nunc Pro Tunc – Retroactive Effect of This Order. The Director determines that it is just and proper to give retroactive effect to this amendment and further correction of the Record on Reconsideration and Corrected Final Order No. C-12-1058-13-FO03.

2.0 RECORD BEFORE THE DIRECTOR

The Director has considered the entire record on reconsideration, including, without limitation, the following documents (collectively, "Record on Reconsideration"):

2.1 The Statement of Charges and Notice of Intent to Enter an Order to Produce Records, Cease and Desist Business, Prohibit from Industry, Order Restitution, Impose Fine, and Collect Investigation Fee, dated September 27, 2012 ("Statement of Charges");

2.2 The Notice of Opportunity to Defend and Opportunity for Hearing, dated September 27, 2012, to Respondent Law Firm ("Notice to Law Firm");

2.3 The Notice of Opportunity to Defend and Opportunity for Hearing, dated September 27, 2012, to Respondent Sibert ("Notice to Sibert");

2.4 The Application for Adjudicative Hearing from Law Firm, dated December 18, 2012 ("Law Firm's Hearing Application");

2.5 The cover letter to second service on Respondent Law Firm of the Statement of Charges and Notice to Law Firm, dated November 15, 2012, from Shana L. Oliver, Financial Legal Examiner, Division of Consumer Services ("2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm");

2.6 The Federal Express proof of delivery of the 2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm, dated November 16, 2012 ("Proof of Delivery on Law Firm");

2.7 The Application for Adjudicative Hearing from Respondent Law Firm, filed December 19, 2012 ("Law Firm's AAH");

2.8 The cover letter to second service on Respondent Sibert of the Statement of Charges and Notice to Sibert, dated January 9, 2013, from Shana L. Oliver, Financial Legal Examiner, Division of Consumer Services ("Cover Letter to Sibert");

2.9 The Federal Express proof of delivery of the Cover Letter to Sibert, date January 10, 2013 ("Proof of Delivery on Sibert");

2.10 The Final Order, dated March 7, 2013;

2.11 The Notice of Appearance for Respondents, dated March 23, 2013, and received March 25, 2013 ("Notice of Appearance");

2.12 The Petition, dated March 25, 2013;

2.13 The Declaration of Jeffrey J. Aleman in Support of Motion for Reconsideration, dated March 25, 2013 ("Aleman Declaration");

2.14 Declaration of Kelly P. Sibert in Support of Respondents' Petition for Reconsideration, dated March 23, 2013 ("Sibert Declaration");

2.15 A letter to Steven C. Sherman of the Department's Division of Consumer Services, dated February 28, 2013, from Mary B. Clark, Esq.;

2.16 Declaration of Service of Notice of Appearance, the Petition, the Aleman Declaration, and the Sibert Declaration, dated March 25, 2013;

2.17 The Division of Consumer Services' General Reply to Petition for Reconsideration, dated April 3, 2013 ("Reply to Petition"); and

2.18 The Declaration of Shana L. Oliver in Support of Division's Reply to Petition for Reconsideration, dated April 3, 2013 ("Oliver Declaration").

3.0 DIRECTOR'S FINDINGS

On the basis of the Record on Reconsideration, the Director finds as follows:

3.1 Consideration on the Merits. The Division, by and through the Reply to the Petition, does not contest the timeliness of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Petition was timely filed pursuant to RCW 34.05.470 and will be considered on the merits. The Reply to the Petition was filed with the Director within ten days of the filing of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Reply to the Petition was timely and will be considered on the merits.

3.2 Director's Discretion; Effect. This Petition is a matter of discretion with the Director.[1] Pursuant to the Washington Administrative Procedures Act ("WAPA"), the Director, by and through his general counsel, Joseph M. Vincent, furnished written notice of the estimated time in which the Director would act on the Petition, which thereby preserved the Petition being deemed "at issue" rather than "denied" by operation of law.[2] Because the Director has elected to formally consider this Petition, the thirty (30) day period for seeking judicial review (if at all) under WAPA (see Notice to the Parties below) is tolled until the issuance of this Order.[3]

3.3 Due Process. The Petition relies heavily upon Graves v. Department of Employment Security for the proposition that an "abuse of discretion [has] occur[ed] when a decision is manifestly unreasonable or exercised on untenable grounds or for untenable reasons. [citations omitted]".[4] In doing so, the Petition purports to create the impression that a general "good cause" standard of relief from default is universal in administrative law. However, the Director finds the Division's Reply to the Petition persuasive in this regard. The Petition does fail to acknowledge that the holding in Graves turns entirely on WAC 192-04-180, the specific rule applicable in administrative adjudications before the Department of Employment Security. Such a "good cause" rule does not apply in administrative adjudications before this Department.

The Department relies upon WAPA, which declares that "[f]ailure of a party to file an application for an adjudicative proceeding within the time limit or limits established by statute or agency rule constitutes a default and results in the loss of that party's right to an adjudicative proceeding, . . ."[5] While the Department is thus empowered under WAPA to adopt rules concerning default applicable to adjudicative proceedings before the Department, there is no mandate to create the same rules as the Department of Employment Security. The Department instead follows the Model Rules of Procedure[6] and its own Rules of Administrative Procedure,[7] the latter of which control as long as they are consistent with WAPA and to the extent that they conflict with the Model Rules. The Department's administrative rule setting forth the time for requesting a hearing and the consequences for failure to comply with these time limits is clearly set forth, as follows:

> (2) Time limits for request. The department must receive the request for an adjudicative hearing no later than twenty calendar days after the department serves the applicant with a written notice of an opportunity to request a hearing upon department action or contemplated department action. Service upon the applicant is completed when made in accordance with WAC 10-08-110 (2) and (3) or as provided by the statute under which the department initiated the action. If the statute under which the department initiated the action specifically provides for a different time limit, the time limit in that statute shall apply unless it has been superseded by the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, but in no case shall the time limit for requesting an adjudicative hearing be less than twenty calendar days.
> (3) Failure to request hearing. Failure of an applicant to file an application for an adjudicative hearing within the time limit set forth in subsection (2) of this section constitutes a default and results in the loss of the applicant's right to an adjudicative hearing. When an applicant defaults, the department may proceed to resolve the case pursuant to RCW 34.05.440(1).[8]

[Emphasis added.]

The Respondents clearly had twenty (20) calendar days from service to request an adjudicative hearing by filing within that time an Application for Administrative Hearing ("AAH"). Respondent Law Firm's AAH was not filed until thirty-three (33) days after proper service (see below) of the Statement of Charges and Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert, respectively. Respondent Sibert never filed an AAH. The Notice of Appearance by counsel for Respondents, filed at the same time as the Petition at issue, is the first time the Department heard from Respondent Sibert in response to the Statement of Charges.

While Respondents do not appear to be attorneys at law in the State of Washington, they are licensed attorneys in the states of Illinois, Arizona and/or Florida. The Director is permitted to take this into consideration when evaluating their ability to comprehend the gravity of being served with the Statement of Charges and Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert. With this in mind, the Director now turns to the two principal arguments by Respondents – equitable estoppel and excusable neglect – which the Director has considered at length prior to issuing this Order.

3.4 Equitable Estoppel and Excusable Neglect. According to the Oliver Declaration, there were two separate unsuccessful attempts, on October 2, 2012, and October 30, 2012, to serve Respondents Law Firm and Sibert by First Class mail alone. Then, on November 15, 2012, the Division employed Federal Express to effect service on Respondents Law Firm (via its corporate office in Illinois) and Respondent Sibert (via his address on the Florida Bar's Web site). On November 16, 2012, the Division received confirmation from Federal Express of Respondent Law Firm having been properly served at its Chicago, Illinois, corporate office. [See Proof of Delivery on Law Firm.] Notwithstanding proper service, it was not until December 19, 2012, which was thirty-three (33) days after personal service on Law Firm consistent with the due process requirements of WAPA, that the Division received Law Firm's AAH. The deadline for Respondent Law Firm filing an AAH was December 6, 2013. Not having done so, Respondent Law Firm lost the right to an adjudicative hearing even though it latently filed an AAH before entry of the Final Order on March 7, 2013.[9]

The facts with respect to personal service on Respondent Sibert are different. The Division takes the position that Respondent Sibert was served by Federal Express delivery on January 10, 2013, at his Port St. Lucie, Florida, address. [See Proof of Delivery on Sibert.] Respondent Sibert thus had until January 30, 2013, to file with the Division an AAH. None was ever received. His counsel's Notice of Appearance for purposes of this Petition was not filed until March 25, 2013, after issuance of the default Final Order.

[9] WAC 208-08-050(1) and (3).

Both Respondents argue that the 2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm and the Cover Letter to Sibert contain a misstatement of law to the effect that the "twenty day" rule for filing an AAH runs from the date of receipt of the Notice and Statement of Charges rather than "service." In the Director's view, this argument is without any merit whatsoever. Even though "service" is typically by U.S. mail, the Division appears to have made sure that Respondents actually had actual knowledge and subjective appreciation that they were served under the requirements of WAPA and that they were, indeed, subject to the jurisdiction of the Division. The Director finds these efforts proper and even commendable in the case of statement of charges involving unlicensed persons who are nonetheless subject to the Mortgage Broker Practices Act, chapter 19.146 RCW, and are perhaps being informed of the Division's authority over them for the first time. In such cases, it was prudent for the Division to use Federal Express and assure itself of actual rather than constructive receipt of the Statement of Charges. This was the process relied upon by the Division as to both Respondents. The Director sees no facts in the Record on Reconsideration suggesting that the Division be equitably estopped from holding both Respondents in default and certainly not on account of the language in the 2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm and Cover Letter to Sibert, which were simply allowing each of the out-of-state Respondents a full twenty (20) days to file an AAH. The Director agrees with the Division's Reply to the Petition that "[t]he party asserting estoppel must show not only lack of knowledge of the facts, but also an absence of any convenient and available means of acquiring such knowledge."[10] The Respondents are educated lawyers. The Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert (like any other administrative or judicial summons or notice of charges) is clear as to what was expected of Respondents – filing an AAH within twenty (20) days of the date of receipt of the Notice and Statement of Charges.

Further, the Petition's defense of excusable neglect is without merit. Absent a "good cause" administrative rule as existed in the Graves case (involving Department of Employment Security) cited above, the Director agrees that the Respondents' argument in this regard is particularly weak. But it is also well-settled, as the Division has pointed out in its Reply to the Petition, that an attorney's negligence or incompetence is attributable to his or her client and is insufficient grounds to justify relief from a default judgment. Respondents cannot blame their prior counsel for untimely filing of an AAH.[11] The Director has carefully considered the Statement of Facts of the Petition and the supporting documentation and can find nothing therein which rises to the level of a defendable case of excusable neglect.

In appropriate cases, the Director agrees that controversies ought to be determined on the merits rather than by default.[12] For this reason, the Director carefully deliberates petitions for reconsideration which make claims of equitable estoppel or excusable neglect. Moreover, the Director is inclined to pay particularly close attention to petitions for reconsideration involving unlicensed, out-of-state respondents who are pro se and may lack an understanding of the law and the implications of non-judicial, administrative pleadings being served upon them by U.S. mail or even Federal Express. But cases in which such petitions for reconsideration have been granted by the Director have either involved (1) a true lack of clarity as to notice of charges or (2) extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the respondent in question (including a lawyer representing the respondent). The facts as to both Respondents are plainly not akin to any of these situations. The Respondents are not entitled to relief from the Final Order.

For all of the reasons set forth above, the Director hereby denies the Petition of Respondents and re-affirms the Final Order issued March 7, 2013.

IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINING Whether there has been a violation of the Mortgage Broker Practices Act of Washington by: LAW FIRM OF MACEY, ALEMAN & SEARNS, and KELLY PATRICK SIBERT, Loan Modification Managing Member, Respondent.	No. C-12-1058-13-FO03 CORRECTED ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND AFFIRMATION OF FINAL ORDER DATED MARCH 7, 2013

2.0 DIRECTOR'S FINDINGS

On the basis of the Record on Reconsideration, the Director finds as follows:

2.1 Consideration on the Merits. The Division, by and through the Reply to the Petition, does not contest the timeliness of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Petition was timely filed pursuant to RCW 34.05.470 and will be considered on the merits. The Reply to the Petition was filed with the Director within ten days of the filing of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Reply to the Petition was timely and will be considered on the merits.

2.2 Director's Discretion; Effect. This Petition is a matter of discretion with the Director.[1] Pursuant to the Washington Administrative Procedures Act ("WAPA"), the Director, by and through his general counsel, Joseph M. Vincent, furnished written notice of the estimated time in which the Director would act on the Petition, which thereby preserved the Petition being deemed "at issue" rather than "denied" by operation of law.[2] Because the Director has elected to formally consider this Petition, the thirty (30) day period for seeking judicial review (if at all) under WAPA (see Notice to the Parties below) is tolled until the issuance of this Order.[3]

2.3 Due Process. The Petition relies heavily upon Graves v. Department of Employment Security for the proposition that an "abuse of discretion [has] occur[ed] when a decision is manifestly unreasonable or exercised on untenable grounds or for untenable reasons. [citations omitted]" [4] In doing so, the Petition purports to create the impression that a general "good cause" standard of relief from default is universal in administrative law. However, the Director finds the Division's Reply to the Petition persuasive in this regard. The Petition does fail to acknowledge that the holding in Graves turns entirely on WAC 192-04-180, the specific rule applicable in administrative adjudications before the Department of Employment Security. Such a "good cause" rule does not apply in administrative adjudications before this Department.

The Department relies upon WAPA, which declares that "[f]ailure of a party to file an application for an adjudicative proceeding within the time limit or limits established by statute or agency rule constitutes a default and results in the loss of that party's right to an adjudicative proceeding, . . ."[5] While the Department is thus empowered under WAPA to adopt rules concerning default applicable to adjudicative proceedings before the Department, there is no mandate to create the same rules as the Department of Employment Security. The Department instead follows the Model Rules of Procedure[6] and its own Rules of Administrative Procedure,[7] the latter of which control as long as they are consistent with WAPA and to the extent that they conflict with the Model Rules. The Department's administrative rule setting forth the time for requesting a hearing and the consequences for failure to comply with these time limits is clearly set forth, as follows:

> (2) Time limits for request. The department must receive the request for an adjudicative hearing no later than twenty calendar days after the department serves the applicant with a written notice of an opportunity to request a hearing upon department action or contemplated department action. Service upon the applicant is completed when made in accordance with WAC 10-08-110 (2) and (3) or as provided by the statute under which the department initiated the action. If the statute under which the department initiated the action specifically provides for a different time limit, the time limit in that statute shall apply unless

[Emphasis added.]

The Respondents clearly had twenty (20) calendar days from service to request an adjudicative hearing by filing within that time an Application for Administrative Hearing ("AAH"). Respondent Law Firm's AAH was not filed until thirty-three (33) days after proper service (see below) of the Statement of Charges and Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert, respectively. Respondent Sibert never filed an AAH. The Notice of Appearance by counsel for Respondents, filed at the same time as the Petition at issue, is the first time the Department heard from Respondent Sibert in response to the Statement of Charges.

While Respondents do not appear to be attorneys at law in the State of Washington, they are licensed attorneys in the states of Illinois, Arizona and/or Florida. The Director is permitted to take this into consideration when evaluating their ability to comprehend the gravity of being served with the Statement of Charges and Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert. With this in mind, the Director now turns to the two principal arguments by Respondents – equitable estoppel and excusable neglect – which the Director has considered at length prior to issuing this Order.

2.4 Equitable Estoppel and Excusable Neglect. According to the Oliver Declaration, there were two separate unsuccessful attempts, on October 2, 2012, and October 30, 2012, to serve Respondents Law Firm and Sibert by First Class mail alone. Then, on November 15, 2012, the Division employed Federal Express to effect service on Respondents Law Firm (via its corporate office in Illinois) and Respondent Sibert (via his address on the Florida Bar's Web site). On November 16, 2012, the Division received confirmation from Federal Express of Respondent Law Firm having been properly served at its Chicago, Illinois, corporate office. [See Proof of Delivery on Law Firm.] Notwithstanding proper service, it was not until December 19,

[8] WAC 208-08-050(2) and (3).

2012, which was thirty-three (33) days after personal service on Law Firm consistent with the due process requirements of WAPA, that the Division received Law Firm's AAH. The deadline for Respondent Law Firm filing an AAH was December 6, 2012. Not having done so, Respondent Law Firm lost the right to an adjudicative hearing even though it latently filed an AAH before entry of the Final Order on March 7, 2013.[9]

The facts with respect to personal service on Respondent Sibert are different. The Division takes the position that Respondent Sibert was served by Federal Express delivery on January 10, 2013, at his Port St. Lucie, Florida, address. [See Proof of Delivery on Sibert.] Respondent Sibert thus had until January 30, 2013, to file with the Division an AAH. None was ever received. His counsel's Notice of Appearance for purposes of this Petition was not filed until March 25, 2013, after issuance of the default Final Order.

Both Respondents argue that the 2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm and the Cover Letter to Sibert contain a misstatement of law to the effect that the "twenty day" rule for filing an AAH runs from the date of receipt of the Notice and Statement of Charges rather than "service." In the Director's view, this argument is without any merit whatsoever. Even though "service" is typically by U.S. mail, the Division appears to have made sure that Respondents actually had actual knowledge and subjective appreciation that they were served under the requirements of WAPA and that they were, indeed, subject to the jurisdiction of the Division. The Director finds these efforts proper and even commendable in the case of statement of charges involving unlicensed persons who are nonetheless subject to the Mortgage Broker Practices Act, chapter 19.146 RCW, and are perhaps being informed of the Division's authority over them for the first time. In such cases, it was prudent for the Division to use Federal Express and assure itself of actual rather than constructive receipt of the Statement of Charges. This was the process relied upon by the Division as to both Respondents. The Director sees no facts in the Record on Reconsideration suggesting that the Division be equitably estopped from holding both Respondents in default and certainly not on account of the language in the 2nd Cover Letter to Law Firm and Cover Letter to Sibert, which were simply allowing each of the out-of-state Respondents a full twenty (20) days to file an AAH. The Director agrees with the Division's

Reply to the Petition that "[t]he party asserting estoppel must show not only lack of knowledge of the facts, but also an absence of any convenient and available means of acquiring such knowledge."[10] The Respondents are educated lawyers. The Notice to Law Firm and Notice to Sibert (like any other administrative or judicial summons or notice of charges) is clear as to what was expected of Respondents – filing an AAH within twenty (20) days of the date of receipt of the Notice and Statement of Charges.

Further, the Petition's defense of excusable neglect is without merit. Absent a "good cause" administrative rule as existed in the Graves case (involving Department of Employment Security) cited above, the Director agrees that the Respondents' argument in this regard is particularly weak. But it is also well-settled, as the Division has pointed out in its Reply to the Petition, that an attorney's negligence or incompetence is attributable to his or her client and is insufficient grounds to justify relief from a default judgment. Respondents cannot blame their prior counsel for untimely filing of an AAH.[11] The Director has carefully considered the Statement of Facts of the Petition and the supporting documentation and can find nothing therein which rises to the level of a defendable case of excusable neglect.

In appropriate cases, the Director agrees that controversies ought to be determined on the merits rather than by default.[12] For this reason, the Director carefully deliberates petitions for reconsideration which make claims of equitable estoppel or excusable neglect. Moreover, the Director is inclined to pay particularly close attention to petitions for reconsideration involving unlicensed, out-of-state respondents who are pro se and may lack an understanding of the law and the implications of non-judicial, administrative pleadings being served upon them by U.S. mail or even Federal Express. But cases in which such petitions for reconsideration have been granted by the Director have either involved (1) a true lack of clarity as to notice of charges or (2) extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the respondent in question (including a

For all of the reasons set forth above, the Director hereby denies the Petition of Respondents and re-affirms the Final Order issued March 7, 2013.

2.0 DIRECTOR'S FINDINGS

On the basis of the Record on Reconsideration, the Director finds as follows:

2.1 Consideration on the Merits. The Division, by and through the Reply to the Petition, does not contest the timeliness of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Petition was timely filed pursuant to RCW 34.05.470 and will be considered on the merits. The Reply to the Petition was filed with the Director within ten days of the filing of the Petition. Therefore, the Director finds that the Reply to the Petition was timely and will be considered and will be considered on the merits.

2.2 Director's Discretion; Effect. This Petition is a matter of discretion with the Director.[1] Pursuant to the Washington Administrative Procedures Act ("WAPA"), the Director, by and through his general counsel, Joseph M.
