To attend the 2016 NASCUS Credit Union Executive Forum
March 23rd in SeaTac, Washington

DFI and NASCUS invite you to an event that will address some of the top challenges confronting credit unions at the 2016 NASCUS Credit Union Executive Forum in SeaTac. The event will be held at the Seattle Airport Marriott. The program will start at 9:00 am and end by 3:30 pm. NASCUS will be providing a continental breakfast and lunch.

The Credit Union Executive Forum is an opportunity for state credit union executives and board members to come together to engage in an important dialogue on several areas that will shape the future of credit unions in Washington. Discussion topics include national issues affecting credit unions, regional economic issues, a regulator panel, discussion on preparing for an earthquake in the Cascadia Subduction Zone, and an industry panel on Commercial Lending. We will publish an agenda with names of speakers in mid-February.

We hope you can join the National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS), the Washington Department of Financial Institutions, the Northwest Credit Union Association (NWCUA) and your fellow credit union executives for insightful discussions geared specifically toward credit union officials.
