DFI Director John L. Bley Announces Year 2000 Meetings With Financial Institutions (In Two Series - Late Winter and Summer)

First Series of Y2K Meetings

The first series of Year 2000 (Y2K) meetings will be held in Bellingham, Seattle, Vancouver, Spokane and Yakima in March. Our agenda for each meeting is as follows:

10AM - 12 noon: Y2K Overview/Community Resilience - John Bley

12 noon - 3PM: Current Y2K Regulatory Issues - Compliance, Communication, Liquidity

Bank/thrift lunch and breakout session: Wayne Fralin, Director of Banks; Mike Abe, Program Manager

Credit union lunch and breakout session: Parker Cann, Director of Credit Unions; Mike Delimont, Senior Examiner

We will assemble together for the morning session, then break out into two sessions for the afternoon.

The first series of meetings are scheduled as follows:

March 02, 1999	Bellingham
March 03, 1999	Seattle
March 05, 1999	Vancouver
March 11, 1999	Spokane
March 12, 1999	Yakima

Please RSVP for the meeting you wish to attend by completing and faxing back page three. We will be contacting individual banks/thrifts/credit unions to arrange meeting rooms, and will advise you when the arrangements have been made.

We invite you to visit DFI's website for a discussion of Y2K issues by the Director and by the Division of Banks (DOB) and Division of Credit Unions (DCU):
