Washington State Model* Supervisory Plan

WAC 208-620-301(6) requires each licensed manager to prepare and maintain a written supervisory plan for the employees they supervise. At a minimum, the plan must include 1) the number of employees supervised and their physical location, 2) how the supervisor will adequately supervise the employees if an employee is not in the same location as the supervisor, and 3) the type and volume of work performed by the supervised employees.

Supervisory plans must be maintained as part of the business books and records.
