I. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1.1 Respondents:

A. PFH, Inc. dba Fast Cash Loans and Loan Ex (Respondent PFH) was licensed by the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Washington (Department) as a check casher, with a small loan endorsement, on August 23, 1996, and has continued to be licensed to date. Respondent PFH also currently holds nineteen (19) branch check casher licenses and nineteen (19) branch small loan endorsements.

B. J. Blake Goldberg (Respondent Goldberg) is President and Chief Executive Officer of Respondent PFH.

C. Steve H. Selvar (Respondent Selvar) is employed by Respondent PFH as manager of the collections department.

1 D. Michael D. Frye (Respondent Frye) is employed by Respondent PFH as a collector.

2 E. Margaret Cook (Respondent Cook) is employed by Respondent PFH as a collector.

3 1.2 Consumer Complaints: To date, the Department and the Office of the Attorney General of 4 Washington (Attorney General) have collectively received over fifty (50) consumer complaints regarding 5 Respondent PFH's business operations, including its activities related to the collection of delinquent small 6 loans, during the period beginning in or around July of 2000 and continuing through July of 2004.

7 1.3 Using Improper Methods of Collecting Delinquent Small Loans:

8 A. At least thirty-five (35) of the consumer complaints referenced in paragraph 1.2 allege that, 9 during contacts with borrowers related to their delinquent small loans, Respondent PFH's employees told 10 borrowers that they were being investigated for criminal felony check fraud and threatened borrowers with 11 criminal prosecution for felony check fraud, and while attempting to contact borrowers related to their 12 delinquent small loans, Respondent PFH's employees told non-borrowers that borrowers were being 13 investigated for criminal felony check fraud. Of these thirty-five (35) consumer complaints, at least sixteen 14 (16) allege that such activity occurred on or after July 27, 2003. Of these sixteen (16) consumer complaints, at 15 least ten (10) allege that such contacts were made by a person identifying himself as Dave Holt, and at least two 16 (2) allege that such contacts were made by a person identifying herself as Olivia Cruz. During the period from 17 July 27, 2003 through July 2004, Respondents Frye and Cook regularly used the aliases Dave Holt and Olivia
18 Cruz, respectively, while making collection telephone calls to borrowers and non-borrowers for Respondent 19 PFH.

20 B. From November of 2001, when Respondent Cook was hired by Respondent PFH, until the end 21 of 2003, she was employed as a "soft" collector, with responsibility for accounts delinquent thirty days or less 22 at particular branches. In January of 2004, she began working with Respondent Frye as a "hard" collector, 23 collecting on accounts delinquent for over thirty days. From January of 2004 until mid-May of 2004, according 24 to Respondent Cook, her standard introduction to borrowers was as follows:

1 "My name is Olivia Cruz [an alias used by Respondent Cook], I'm a fraud 2 investigator, I'm conducting an investigation into the felony check fraud that you 3 were involved in when you wrote your check to Fast Cash Loans. Check fraud is 4 a felony under RCW 9A.56.060. Do you want to go ahead and resolve that or do 5 you want me to take further action?"

6 For the period from January of 2004 until mid-May of 2004, Respondent Cook, while attempting 7 to contact delinquent borrowers, would regularly tell non-borrowers that she was a fraud 8 investigator investigating the felony check fraud that the delinquent borrower had committed and 9 would regularly ask borrowers and non-borrowers if the delinquent borrower had ever been 10 arrested.

11 C. From November of 2001, when Respondent Frye was hired by Respondent PFH, until the end 12 of July of 2004, he was a "hard" collector, meaning he had collection responsibility over accounts that the 13 "soft" collectors were unable to collect, usually borrowers delinquent over forty-five days. From November of 14 2001 until July of 2003, according to Respondent Frye, his standard introduction to borrowers was as follows:

15 "My name is [generally an alias used by Respondent Frye], I'm a fraud 16 investigator hired by Fast Cash Loans conducting a felony fraud investigation on 17 you under the RCW 9A.56.060. If you would like to resolve this without me 18 having to turn this over to [law enforcement agency in County where loan was 19 originated, such as "King County Sheriff's Office"], you have until [specific 20 date] to pay it. Do you want to resolve it?"

21 After July of 2003, Respondent Frye used the same introduction except that he would tell borrowers they would 22 be turned over to a County, rather than a specific law enforcement agency within that County (i.e. "King 23 County" rather than "King County Sheriff's Office"). Respondent Frye claimed he always indicated that he had 24 been hired by Fast Cash Loans. However, in or around September 2003 Respondent Frye left the following voicemail for a customer:

1 "You need to give Dave Holt [an alias used by Respondent Frye] a call, you are 2 currently under investigation by my office for the felony fraud that you 3 committed against Fast Cash Loans back on July 27. It is under the Revised 4 Code of Washington 9A.56.060. If this is something that you would like to go
5 ahead and resolve without me having to proceed against you under this statute, I 6 can be reached at 253-954-1207."

7 For the period from November of 2001 through July of 2004, Respondent Frye, while attempting to contact 8 delinquent borrowers, would regularly tell non-borrowers that he was a fraud investigator investigating the 9 felony check fraud that the delinquent borrower had committed and would regularly ask borrowers and non-10 borrowers if the delinquent borrower had ever been arrested.

11 1.4 Using a Fictitious Name Indicating a Third Person is Attempting to Collect Loans: At least thirty-12 two (32) of the consumer complaints referenced in paragraph 1.2 allege that, during contacts with borrowers 13 related to their delinquent small loans and while attempting to contact borrowers related to their delinquent 14 small loans, Respondent PFH's collection employees represented that they were fraud investigators or 15 investigators, or that they were employed by Western Washington Fraud Unit or the Fraud Unit. Of these 16 thirty-two (32) consumer complaints, at least seventeen (17) allege that such activity occurred on or after July 17 27, 2003. Of these seventeen (17) consumer complaints, at least twelve (12) allege that such contacts were 18 made by a person identifying himself as Dave Holt, and at least two (2) allege that such contacts were made by 19 a person identifying herself as Olivia Cruz. During the period from July 27, 2003 through July 2004, 20 Respondents Frye and Cook regularly used the aliases Dave Holt and Olivia Cruz, respectively, while making 21 collection telephone calls to borrowers and non-borrowers for Respondent PFH. Respondents Frye and Cook 22 regularly identified themselves as fraud investigators between November of 2001 and May of 2004, and for an 23 indeterminate period of time, the main telephone number (253-927-4200) associated with Respondents Frye and 24 Cook, while they were employed as "hard" collectors as discussed in paragraphs 1.3B and 1.3C, had an 25 outgoing voice mail message for callers stating they had reached Western Washington Fraud Unit. As late as

1 June 8, 2004, when calling the same telephone number (253-927-4200), the outgoing voice mail message
2 referred to Western Washington Fraud Unit.

3 1.5 Using Abusive Debt Collection Practices: All of the consumer complaints referenced in paragraph 4 1.4 allege abusive debt collection practices by employees in Respondent PFH's collection department, 5 including:

- 6 (a) Contacting non-borrowers in an attempt to locate borrowers, and telling such non-borrowers 7 that borrowers either owed Respondent PFH for a delinquent small loan or were under 8 investigation for felony check fraud. (In this and following descriptions of alleged collection 9 activities, non-borrowers include adult and juvenile members of the borrowers' households, 10 family members, friends, coworkers, supervisors, Human Resource employees at borrowers' 11 places of employment, landlords, neighbors, grocery store employees, and non-borrowers listed 12 as references on small loan applications);
- 13 (b) Contacting non-borrowers multiple times in an attempt to locate borrowers, even after being 14 told by such non-borrowers multiple times that they did not know the location of the borrowers;
- 15 (c) Contacting borrowers early in the morning, late in the evening, or at inconvenient locations 16 such as while shopping at local supermarkets;
- 17 (d) Contacting borrowers at their place of employment, even after being asked to stop by 18 borrowers, supervisors or employers;
- 19 (e) Contacting non-borrowers and telling such non-borrowers that borrowers either owed 20 Respondent PFH for a delinquent small loan or were under investigation for felony check fraud, 21 even after the location of the borrowers was known;
- 22 (f) Using profanity while communicating with borrowers;
- 23 (g) Contacting or attempting to contact borrowers and non-borrowers more than five times in a 24 given day, or more than twenty times in a given week;

- 1 (h) Telling borrowers that they were "a nobody", because if they were somebody they wouldn't 2 need to use a payday lender;
- 3 (i) Telling borrowers that they would lose custody of their children, and telling children of 4 borrowers that their parents would be going to jail;
- 5 (j) Representing themselves as fraud investigators or investigator, as discussed in paragraph 1.4; 6 and
- 7 (k) Representing or implying that non-payment of the delinquent small loan would lead to the 8 borrowers' arrest or imprisonment, as discussed in paragraph 1.3.

9 1.6 Charging Excess Interest or Fees on Small Loans: During an examination of two hundred eighty-10 eight (288) loan files conducted by Department personnel in August of 2004, twenty (20) loans were identified 11 as having been charged excess interest or fees. The interest or fee overpayments on these loans totaled one 12 hundred dollars ($100.00). The overcharges occurred when individual borrowers took out more than one loan 13 from Respondent PFH, and the aggregated principal of all loans made to such individual borrowers exceeded 14 five hundred dollars ($500.00) at any one time. In such instances, Respondent PFH charged interest or fees
15 equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the entire principal balance. As stated in Section II below, RCW 31.45.073 16 limits interest or fees on the portion of principal balances that exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) to ten 17 percent (10%) of such balances.

18 1.7 Charging Excess Fees on Small Loan Payment Plans: At Respondent PFH, all borrower requests for 19 small loan payment plans are referred to the collection department. During the period from September 2003 20 through at least July 2004, the collection department would not enter into a small loan payment plan until the 21 requesting borrower's check was returned by the bank it was drawn on as insufficient funds (NSF). This 22 procedure was applied to all borrower requests for small loan payment plans, including requests by borrowers 23 who qualified for mandatory conversion to a small loan payment plan under the Act (request made after four 24 successive loans and prior to default upon the last loan). Once a small loan payment plan was set up, 25 Respondent PFH charged borrowers a one-time fee for the payment plan equal to the fee or interest on the

1 outstanding principal of the loan as allowed by the Act. Beginning in or around October of 2003 and ending in 2 or around May of 2004, Respondent PFH also charged such borrowers an NSF fee of $25. After May of 2004, 3 Respondent PFH no longer charged the NSF fee, but borrowers must still bear any fees charged by the 4 borrower's bank.

5 1.8 Failure to Provide Small Loan Payment Plan: On at least one occasion, Respondent PFH failed to 6 provide a small loan payment plan for a borrower who qualified for mandatory conversion under the Act. In 7 August of 2004, a branch manager of Respondent PFH stated to Department personnel that a borrower had 8 recently attempted to set up a small loan payment plan, and had left seventy five dollars ($75.00) in cash with 9 the branch manager as payment for the small loan payment plan fee. A review of the borrower's loan history 10 showed she was in her fourth successive loan, and had not yet defaulted on that loan. The branch manager 11 stated that the collections department told her that the borrower could not be set up on a payment plan because 12 the borrower was unemployed and was not married.

13 1.9 Disclosing Understated Annual Percentage Rate (APR) to Borrowers: During an examination of 14 forty (40) loan files from Respondent PFH's Tumwater and Centralia branch offices, conducted by Department 15 personnel in August 2004, five (5) loans were identified as having handwritten disclosures with understated 16 APR's. In two of these loans, the understatement required refunds of $15.94 and $3.20, totaling $19.14.

17 1.10 Failure to Notify Department of Location Closure: On or around July 22, 1999, the Department
18 issued a license and small loan endorsement to Respondent PFH for a location at 13303 Pacific Ave S, Tacoma, 19 Washington. On or around July 15, 2001, Respondent PFH closed this location. On or around December 13, 20 2002, the Department issued a license and small loan endorsement to Respondent PFH for a location at 706
21 Yelm Ave E, Yelm, Washington. This location was never opened. To date, the Department has not received 22 any written notification of Respondent PFH's closure of these two locations.

23 1.11 Failure to Notify Department of Significant Developments: Respondent PFH's license application, 24 filed with the Department in June of 1996, lists Respondent Goldberg as President and fifty percent owner of 25 Respondent PFH, and David M. Otto as Vice President and fifty percent owner of Respondent PFH. In an

1 interview conducted by Department personnel on September 1, 2004, Respondent Goldberg stated that the 2 ownership of Respondent PFH has changed between initial licensure and the present, that he currently owns 3 approximately one percent of Respondent PFH, and that no individual shareholder currently owns more than 4 fourteen percent of Respondent PFH. Respondent Goldberg further stated that between 1998 and 2000, Mike 5 Humphries was the Chief Executive Officer of Respondent PFH. To date, the Department has not received any 6 written notification of a change in control of Respondent PFH since initial licensure in 1996.

7 1.12 On-Going Examination: The Department's examination into the alleged violations of the Act by 8 Respondents continues to date.

9 II. GROUNDS FOR ENTRY OF ORDER

10 2.1 Collection of Delinquent Small Loans:

11 A. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondents are in apparent violation 12 of RCW 31.45.082 for threatening criminal prosecution as a method of collecting a delinquent small loan.

13 B. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondents are in apparent violation 14 of RCW 31.45.082 and WAC 208-630-080 for failing to comply with all applicable state and federal laws when 15 collecting a delinquent small loan, in particular, 15 USC 1692, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and RCW 16 19.16, the Collection Agency Act. Pursuant to 15 USC 1692a(6), the definition of a debt collector includes any 17 creditor who, in the process of collecting his own debts, uses any name other than his own which would indicate 18 that a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such debts. Pursuant to RCW 19.16.100(2)(c), the 19 definition of a collection agency includes any person who in attempting to collect or in collecting his or her own 20 claim uses a fictitious name or any name other than his or her own which would indicate to the debtor that a 21 third person is collecting or attempting to collect such claim. The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the 22 Collection Agency Act prohibit the use of abusive debt collection practices by debt collectors, including the 23 following activities in connection with the collection of any debt:

- 24 • Stating that a consumer owes any debt while communicating with any person other than the 25 consumer for the purpose of acquiring location information about the consumer.

- 1 • Communicating with any person other than the consumer for the purpose of acquiring 2 location information about the consumer more than once unless requested to do so by such 3 person or unless the debt collector reasonably believes that the earlier response of such 4 person is erroneous or incomplete and that such person now has correct or complete 5 location information.
- 6 • Communicating with a consumer at any unusual time or place or a time or place known or 7 which should be known to be inconvenient to the consumer.
- 8 • Communicating with a consumer at a consumer's place of employment if the debt collector 9 knows or has reason to know that the consumer's employer prohibits the consumer from 10 receiving such communication.
- 11 • Communicating with any person other than the consumer, other than to acquire location 12 information about the consumer.
- 13 • Engaging in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse 14 any person, including the use of obscene or profane language, or causing a telephone to 15 ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with 16 intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number.
- 17 • Using any false, deceptive, or misleading representation, including the false representation 18 that the debt collector is affiliated with any State, the representation or implication that 19 nonpayment of any debt will result in the arrest or imprisonment of any person unless such 20 action is lawful and the debt collector or creditor intends to take such action, the threat to 21 take any action that cannot legally be taken or that is not intended to be taken, the false 22 representation or implication that the consumer committed any crime or other conduct in 23 order to disgrace the consumer, the use of any false representation or deceptive means to 24 collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer, or the

1 use of any business, company, or organization name other than the true name of the debt 2 collector's business, company, or organization.

3 The Collection Agency Act requires collection agencies to be licensed by the State of Washington.

4 C. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondents are in apparent violation
5 of RCW 31.45.110(1)(k) and (l) for committing acts of fraudulent or dishonest dealing and engaging in conduct 6 that demonstrates incompetence or untrustworthiness, or is a source of injury and loss to the public.

7 2.2 Maximum Interest or Fees on a Small Loan: Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I 8 above, Respondent PFH is in apparent violation of RCW 31.45.073(3) for charging interest or fees exceeding, 9 in the aggregate, fifteen percent of the first five hundred dollars of aggregated principal of all loans to a single 10 borrower at any one time, and ten percent of that portion of the aggregated principal balances of all loans to a 11 single borrower which exceed five hundred dollars at any one time.

12 2.3 Small Loan Payment Plans: Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, 13 Respondent PFH is in apparent violation of RCW 31.45.084(1) for failing to provide a small loan payment plan 14 to a borrower who had at least four successive loans and who requested a small loan payment plan prior to 15 default on the last loan, and for charging fees on small loan payment plans in excess of the fee or interest on the 16 outstanding principal of the loan as allowed under RCW 31.45.073(3).

17 2.4 Requirement to Disclose APR: Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, 18 Respondent PFH is in apparent violation of RCW 31.45.088(3) and WAC 208-630-080(3) for disclosing 19 understated APR's to the borrowers.

20 2.5 Requirement to Notify Department of Location Closure: Based on the Factual Allegations set forth 21 in Section I above, Respondent PFH is in apparent violation of RCW 31.45.050(3) for failing to notify the
