ATTORNEY GENERAL OF WASHINGTON

GOVERNMENT COMPLIANCE & ENFORCEMENT

State of Washington

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

IN THE MATTER OF INVESTIGATING The Loan Originator License Application under the Mortgage Broker Practices Act of Washington by:

DONALD EUGENE RAILSBACK,

Respondent.

OAH Docket No. 2007-DFI-0050

No. C-07-521-07-FO01

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND MODIFYING INITIAL ORDER OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

THIS MATTER has come before the Director ("hereinafter, "Director") of the Department of Financial Institutions (hereinafter, "Department") in the above-enumerated administrative action pursuant to Initial Order on DFI Motion for a Summary Judgment (hereinafter, collectively, "Initial Order") based upon a Statement of Charges and Notice of Intention to Enter an Order to Deny License Application and Prohibit from Industry (hereinafter, "Statement of Charges") issued by the Division of Consumer Services (hereinafter, "Division") on or about December 19, 2007, under the authority of the Mortgage Broker Practices Act, Ch. 19.146 RCW (hereinafter, "MBPA").

The Respondent, DONALD EUGENE RAILSBACK (hereinafter, "Respondent") timely requested an Administrative Hearing to contest the Statement of Charges, and this matter was assigned to the Office of Administrative Hearings (hereinafter, "OAH"), which designated Administrative Law Judge Laura Valente (hereinafter, "Administrative Law Judge") to hear the case. The Division made a Motion for Summary Judgment (hereinafter, "Summary Judgment Motion"), by and through its counsel, Assistant Attorney General, Chad C. Standifer (hereinafter, "Division Counsel"), which included a Memorandum in Support of Department's Motion for Summary Judgment (hereinafter, "Division's Memorandum") and a Declaration of Deborah Pinsonneault on behalf of the Division with supporting Exhibits (hereinafter, "Pinsonneault Declaration" and "Pinsonneault Exhibits"). Respondent filed a Summary Judgment Answer and Declaration in Support of Granting Railsback Summary Judgment (hereinafter, "Summary Judgment Response"). Then, on March 20, 2008, the Administrative Law Judge issued an Initial Order granting the Summary Judgment Order, which was followed by a corrected Initial Order on April 30, 2008. The Initial Order contains Findings of Fact (hereinafter, "FOF") and Conclusions of Law (hereinafter, "COL").

The Division, by and through Division Counsel, timely filed its own Petition for Review of Initial Order on May 19, 2008 (hereinafter, "Petition for Review"). Respondent never filed a response to the Petition for Review.

More than twenty (20) days has elapsed since the entry and service of the Initial Order. Respondent has not filed any petition for review of the Initial Order.

The Director subsequently ordered, received and has now considered the entire OAH Record. This Final Decision and Order are based upon a consideration of the entire OAH Record, including, without limitation, the following:

- 1. Uniform Individual Mortgage License/Registration & Consent Form, filed as of April 16, 2007 (hereinafter, "DFI Registration Form");
- 2. Online License application dated July 24, 2007 (hereinafter, "Application");
- 3. Statement of Charges;
- 4. Application for Adjudicative Hearing;
- 5. Summary Judgment Motion;
- 6. Declaration of Deborah Pinsonneault (hereinafter, "Pinsonneault Declaration");
- 7. Exhibits to Pinsonneault Declaration;
- 8. Summary Judgment Response;
- 9. Initial Order; and
- 10. Petition for Review.

This record is hereinafter referred to collectively as "Record on Review."

1.0 Summary of the Case. This case comes before the Director on the ultimate issue of whether Respondent should be precluded from obtaining a loan originator license until on or about March 24, 2010, or whether Respondent should be prohibited from participating in the conduct of the affairs of a mortgage broker or loan originator subject to licensure in Washington State, through and including July 14, 2014, or whether the Director, in the exercise of his plenary authority and discretion, may impose a prohibition for a period ending somewhere between these two dates. This issue revolves around the following undisputed facts and questions of law:

- 1.1 Prior Department Order. On March 1, 2005, the Division filed and served upon Respondent a statement of charges that resulted in a final order, dated March 24, 2005, in which (1) the Washington State mortgage broker license held by Clark County Carpet Cleaning & Damage Restoration, Inc. (in which Respondent was a principal and designated broker) was revoked. Respondent was prohibited from acting as a principal or designated broker for a licensed mortgage broker for a period of five (5) years.
- Disclosure on his Application, the Respondent responded as to whether he had ever filed bankruptcy, as follows: "Related to litigation in a civil action. Long story, but I had it dismissed a few months after filing." Respondent failed to completely which was later dismissed on June 29, 1999. Respondent also failed to acknowledge or identify the commencement and subsequent dismissal, on apparent procedural grounds, of three other bankruptcy proceedings: (1) A case filed on July 17, 2001, which was dismissed February 15, 2002; (2) a case filed June 5, 2002, which was dismissed July 12, 2002; and (3) a case filed February 18, 2003, which was dismissed March 20, 2003.
- 1.3 Automatic Five-Year Ban. One question of law is whether, pursuant to RCW 19.146.310(1)(c), Respondent is subject to an automatic denial of a license, on account of having had another license under the MBPA revoked or suspended within 5 years of the Application.
- 1.4 Authority to Extend Prohibition. The other question of law is whether the Director has the authority, pursuant to RCW 19.146.220(5)(a) and WAC 208-660-008(9), to prohibit Respondent from participating in the conduct of affairs of a mortgage broker subject to licensure, or otherwise acting as an "independent contractor" loan originator for a mortgage broker exempt from licensure under RCW 19.146.020(1)(b), (c), (e) and (g), up through and including July 14, 2014, by reason of Respondent having negligently made false statements or knowingly and willfully made omissions of material fact in connection with his Application in violation of RCW 19.146.0201(8).

2.0 Preliminary Considerations.

Standards for Summary Judgment in Administrative Actions. The Director takes 2.1 note preliminarily of the following standards which are to be applied to motions for summary judgment in an administrative action under the Administrative Procedures Act, Chapter 34.05 RCW (hereinafter, "APA"). The Department has adopted the Model Rules of Procedure, Chapter 10-08 WAC, except to the extent of any conflict with the Department's Rules of Procedure. WAC 10-08-135 sets forth the standards to be followed by the Department and the Administrative Law Judge, as its agent, when considering the Summary Judgment Motion and the Summary Judgment Response, and declares that "[a] motion for summary judgment may be granted and an order issued [only] if the written record shows that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." In evaluating the application of this standard, the Director may rely on applicable law from sources other than WAC 10-08-135 itself and must be respectful of the constitutional rights of respondents.<sup>2</sup> To that end, the Director is required to weigh on review all pleadings, evidence and argument in a light most favorable to the non-moving party.<sup>3</sup> If there is any inference of a triable issue of fact, then summary judgment is inappropriate.4 Litigants are entitled to a dispositive hearing on all issues of fact and law.<sup>5</sup> Summary judgment may be granted if reasonable minds could reach only one conclusion based upon the facts in evidence, and neither the non-moving party, Administrative Law Judge or the Director may rely upon

speculation or argumentative assertions that unresolved factual issues remain to be tried.<sup>6</sup> These principles apply equally to the Administrative Law Judge and to the Director evaluating the Initial Order.<sup>7</sup>

- Respondent. Respondent did not file a petition for review contesting the Initial Order. However, even when a party has not filed a petition for review, the Director still has the authority and duty, prior to entering a Final Decision and Order, to consider whether any part of the Initial Order is not supported by the record<sup>8</sup> and whether confirmation of the Initial Order, without modification, would be an error of law. Indeed, with regard to the COL as contained in the Initial Order, the Director is obliged, in the manner of a reviewing court, to consider the statutes and implementing regulations of the Division under the error of law standard, which permits the Director to substitute his judgment for that of the Division's Statement of Charges and the Administrative Law Judge's Initial Order.
- 3.0 Director's Consideration of FOF and COL. After due consideration of the entire Record on Review and in a light most favorable to Respondent, the Director is of the decided view that, while summary judgment is appropriate as to all issues, certain conclusions of law contained in the Initial Order should be eliminated as error or otherwise modified.
- 3.1 Error in COL 9 of the Initial Order. The Director concurs with the Petition for Review that WAC 208-660-163 applies to the licensure of mortgage brokers. Since the Respondent applied for a loan originator license and not a mortgage broker license, WAC 208-660-163 is not applicable to this case.
- 3.2 Error in COL 10 of the Initial Order. The Director concurs with the Petition for Review that WAC 208-660-163(5) applies to mortgage broker applications. Since the

RE: Donald Eugene Railsback, OAH Docket No. 2007-DFI-0050, No. C-07-521-07-F001

 Respondent applied for a loan originator license and not a mortgage broker license, WAC 208-660-163(5) is not applicable to this case.

- Administrative Law Judge committed error in COL 16 of the Initial Order in deciding that the issue of Respondent's culpability (negligence or willfulness) requires a hearing. On the contrary, the Record on Review is devoid of any inference of a triable issue of fact. Based upon the Record on Review, the Director is of the view that reasonable minds can reach only one conclusion. There is no contention in the Record on Review that Respondent was unaware that he had filed for bankruptcy four times. Respondent's act in filling out the Application was volitional. The statements in question were false. Respondent omitted material facts from his answer in question. The Record on Review is simply devoid of any inference that Respondent did not act willfully. The Director will, therefore, not entertain mere speculation that a triable issue of fact exists as to Respondent's state of mind in the absence of any help from Respondent or the remainder of the Record on Review.
- 3.4 Error in COL 17 of the Initial Order. COL 17 of the Initial Order states that RCW 19.146.220(5) is not applicable to this matter because the Respondent is not licensed as a mortgage broker. This conclusion is a clear error of law, since RCW 19.146.220(5) is applicable to this matter. Any "loan originator of any licensed mortgage broker" or any "person subject to licensing under this chapter" may be prohibited from participation in the conduct of the affairs of any licensed mortgage broker. Pursuant to RCW 19.146.220(5), it is within the discretion of the Department to prohibit unlicensed individuals from the mortgage broker industry if certain violations of the MBPA are committed. Respondent had established a working relationship as a loan originator with a licensed mortgage broker, Creekside Mortgage, at the time of Application. He subsequently established a working relationship as a loan originator with Abacus Mortgage, a licensed mortgage broker. In addition, as a loan <sup>10</sup> RCW 19.146.220(5). One need not be licensed under the MBPA to meet the statutory definition of "loan originator." See RCW 19.146.010(1); see also WAC 208-660-006.

RE: Donald Eugene Railsback, OAH Docket No. 2007-DFI-0050, No. C-07-521-07-F001

originator license applicant, the Respondent was certainly "subject to licensing" under the Act. Moreover, it is conceivable that Respondent might seek to become an "independent contractor" loan originator for an exempt mortgage broker. It is squarely within the Department's statutory authority to order that Respondent be prohibited from the mortgage broker industry pursuant to RCW 19.146.220(5)(a) for his violation of the MBPA and that the prohibition extend to any attempt to act as an "independent contractor" loan originator for an exempt mortgage broker under RCW 19.146.020(1)(b), (c), (e) and (g). Respondent violated RCW 19.146.0201(8) by submitting false statements and omitting material information on the Application. It would therefore be a proper exercise of the Director's discretion to prohibit Respondent from the mortgage broker industry in Washington State through July 14, 2014.

- 4.0 Findings of Fact. Now, therefore, the Director re-affirms FOF 1 through FOF 8, inclusive, at pages 1-3 of the Initial Order.
- 5.0 Conclusions of Law. Now, therefore, the Director disaffirms, re-affirms and otherwise modifies COL 1 through COL 17, at pages 3-8 of the Initial Order, as follows:
- 5.1 COL 1-5, 7-8, and 11-15 of the Initial Order. COL 1 through COL 5, COL 7 through COL 8, and COL 11 through COL 15 of the Initial Order are hereby re-affirmed in their entirety and without modification.
- 5.2 COL 6 of the Initial Order. COL 6 of the Initial Order is modified to read as follows:

"WAC 208-660-163(9) states that the Administrative Procedures Act, RCW 34.05, governs appeals or review of mortgage broker license denials, suspensions, revocations and appeals or reviews of those actions."

- 5.3 COL 9 of the Initial Order. COL 9 of the Initial Order is disaffirmed and is hereby stricken.
- 5.4 COL 10 of the Initial Order. COL 10 of the Initial Order is disaffirmed and is hereby stricken.
- 5.5 COL 16 of the Initial Order. COL 16, as contained in the Initial Order, is disaffirmed and is hereby stricken. In its place, the Director makes the following conclusion of law:

"The Department seeks to resolve by Summary Judgment the issue of whether Respondent negligently made false statements or knowingly and willfully omitted This issue relates to the Exhibits to material facts in the Application. Pinsonneault Declaration, which are part of the Record on Review and are not contested by Respondent. When asked on his Application whether he had filed for bankruptcy within the last 10 years, Respondent gave an answer which was only partially true - and was altogether vague in the part which was "true." Respondent acknowledged one filing and failed to inform the Division of 3 other U.S. Bankruptcy Court filings. The Administrative Law Judge correctly made this finding in FOF 1. The Director concludes that all of the bankruptcy filings were material facts. Under the circumstances, Respondent's answer to the Application question regarding past bankruptcy filing(s) was not reasonable. In answer to Question 1 of the Financial Disclosure, the Respondent answered simply: "Related to litigation in a civil action. Long story, but I had it dismissed a few months after filing." This answer is direct, uncontested evidence of having failed to disclose 3 of the four bankruptcy filings and having misrepresented a fourth, since it also appears to the Director from the Record on Review that Respondent these bankruptcy proceedings were involuntarily dismissed (which would mean that in the one disclosed case that Respondent did not have "it" dismissed). This false statement and omission of material facts were a violation of RCW 19.146.0201(8), which is a legitimate basis for the Director prohibiting Respondent from prospective participation in the mortgage broker industry in Washington State pursuant to RCW 19.146.220(5)(a). The remaining question is whether the Director can conclude as a matter of law from the Record on Review whether Respondent's false statement was merely negligent or whether the material omissions of fact were willful - a distinction which would affect the Director's discretion with regard to the length of the prohibition to be imposed upon Respondent. In this regard, the Director has determined that reasonable minds can reach only one conclusion - that some willful omission of material facts took place. The Director can simply find no credible basis in the Record on Review for the proposition that Respondent's omission of material facts was an oversight and, therefore, unintentional. While the Director must consider even an inference of a triable issue of fact in a light most favorable to Respondent, the entire Record on Review, including Respondent's Summary Judgment Response, provides no such inference."

- 5.6 COL 17 of the Initial Order. COL 17 of the Initial Order is disaffirmed and is hereby stricken.
- 5.7 Director's Additional Considerations. The Director is all too familiar with other loan originator license applicants who have willfully omitted material facts about their past criminal history. However, this is the first case on review before the Director since the 2006 MBPA Amendments in which a license applicant has appeared to willfully omit material facts about matters so insignificant, in comparison to criminal felonies and other financial crimes, as bankruptcy filings which were dismissed on procedural grounds and in which there does not appear from the Record on Review to have been a single adjudication under Chapter, 7, 11 or 13 resulting in a confirmed plan of reorganization or liquidation. In this regard, the Director concludes that this conduct is disturbing, because complete honesty would have been so easy for Respondent and the facts, if known by the Division from the face of the Application, may not have been viewed harshly. But Respondent – by his own volition and for reasons of his own which we need not explore in order to grant summary judgment – lied to the Division and did so in a manner which can only be viewed as willful. Accordingly, there appear to be no mitigating factors that would weigh in favor of leniency by the Director in regard to the length of prohibition from participation in the mortgage brokerage industry properly requested by the Division in its Statement of Charges.

- 6.0 Final Order. Having made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law as set forth in Sections 4.0 and 5.0 above, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:
- 6.1 Denial of License. The application of Respondent, DONALD EUGENE RAILSBACK, for a Loan Originator License is denied.
- 6.2 Prohibition. Respondent DONALD EUGENE RAILSBACK is further prohibited until July 14, 2014, from (1) participation in the conduct of the affairs of any mortgage broker subject to licensure by the Director, and (2) acting as a loan originator (or the equivalent) in Washington State for any mortgage broker claiming exemption from licensure under RCW 19.146.020(1)(b), (c), (e) and (g).
- 6.3 Reconsideration. Pursuant to RCW 34.05.470, Respondent has the right to file a Petition for Reconsideration stating the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. The Petition must be filed in the Office of the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions by courier at 150 Israel Road SW, Tumwater, Washington 98501, or by U.S. Mail at P.O. Box 41200, Olympia, Washington 98504-1200, within ten (10) days of service of this Final Order upon Respondent. The Petition for Reconsideration shall not stay the effectiveness of this order nor is a Petition for Reconsideration a prerequisite for seeking judicial review in this matter. A timely Petition for Reconsideration is deemed denied if, within twenty (20) days from the date the petition is filed, the agency does not (a) dispose of the petition or (b) serve the parties with a written notice specifying the date by which it will act on a petition.

- 6.4 Stay of Order. The Director has determined not to consider a petition to stay the effectiveness of this order. Any such requests should be made in connection with a Petition for Judicial Review made under chapter 34.05 RCW and RCW 34.05.550.
- 6.5 Judicial Review. Respondent has the right to petition the superior court for judicial review of this agency action under the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW. For the requirements for filing a Petition for Judicial Review, see RCW 34.05.510 and sections following.
- 6.6 Service. For purposes of filing a Petition for Reconsideration or a Petition for Judicial Review, service is effective upon deposit of this order in the U.S. mail, declaration of service attached hereto.
- 6.7 Effectiveness and Enforcement of Final Order. Pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act, at RCW 34.05.473, this Final Decision and Order shall be effective immediately upon deposit in the United States Mail.

Dated at Tumwater, Washington, on this 20 day of 1 December 2008.

• 1-Have you ever filed a personal bankruptcy petition or been the subject of an involuntary bankruptcy petition?

In explanation of his answer Respondent Railsback stated, "[r]elated to litigation in a civil action. Long story, but I had it dismissed a few months after filing." Respondent Railsback was obligated by statute to answer questions on the loan originator license application truthfully and to provide the Department with complete details of all events or proceedings.

II. GROUNDS FOR ENTRY OF ORDER

- 2.4 Requirement to Demonstrate Character and General Fitness. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondent Railsback fails to meet the requirements of RCW 19.146.310(1)(g) and WAC 208-660-350(2)(a) by failing to demonstrate character and general fitness such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant a belief that the business will be operated honestly and fairly within the purposes of the Act.
