1.2 Examination. On February 29, 2008, the Department conducted an examination of the records of Respondent Homepoint. The Department's examination covered a time frame from January 1, 2006, through February 29, 2008, and included the review of approximately 8 loan files. As a result of the examination, the Department discovered violations of the Act as outlined below.

Failure to Properly Display Loan Originator/Mortgage Broker License Numbers on Applications.
 Respondents did not include the loan originator license and mortgage broker numbers on 7 residential mortgage loan applications, 6 of which were originated by Respondent Van.

8 1.4 Failure to Specify Fees Benefiting the Broker. Respondents did not specify which fees on the Good 9 Faith Estimate (GFE) inured to the benefit of the mortgage broker. Seven borrowers received GFEs from 10 Respondent Homepoint that did not specify processing fees that would benefit Respondent Homepoint. The 11 processing fees totaled $3,220. Respondent Van originated 6 of the 7 loans mentioned above.

12 I.5 Failing to Properly Maintain Records. Respondents did not provide the Department, during the examination, a GFE and Truth In Lending (TIL) disclosure for one borrower who applied for a loan with the Respondents on or about January 20, 2007.

15 I.6 Failure to Maintain Funds From Borrower for Payment of Third-Party Providers in Trust. In 16 connection with five residential mortgage loans, the Respondents received credit report fees from escrow that 17 Respondents did not deposit into its trust account. Respondents subsequently paid the service provider from its 18 general account rather than its trust account.

19 1.7 Failure to Provide Borrowers with Complete and Accurate Disclosures. Respondents did not 20 provide accurate TIL disclosures on 7 loans (6 borrowers), by not including fees and costs associated with a
21 finance charge as part of the Annual Percentage Rate (APR) and by leaving the lower portion of the TIL blank
22 (not checking prepayment penalty box, late charge, demand feature and assumption). In addition, 4 of the 7
23 loans did not disclose the loan as a variable rate loan as the variable rate feature box had not been checked.
24 Respondent Van originated 6 of the 7 loans mentioned above.

1.8 Failure to Provide Disclosures of New Loan Terms. Respondents did not disclose a change in loan terms to one borrower, when the interest rate was increased from 6.50 percent to 6.875 percent.

1.9 Failure to Provide Borrowers the Variable Rate Mortgage Program Disclosure. Respondents did not provide the Variable Rate Mortgage Program Disclosure to 3 borrowers (4 loans) within 3-days of applying for a residential mortgage loan.

6 1.10 Failure to Properly Disclose Mortgage Broker Fees on Good Faith Estimate. Respondents did not
7 properly disclose the mortgage broker fee on lines 808-811 of the GFE, but rather disclosed the fee on line 801
8 of the GFE. This improper disclosure occurred on 6 loans, 5 of which were originated by Respondent Van,
9 with fees totaling $13,963.10.

1.11 Failure to Disclose Yield Spread Premiums in the Good Faith Estimate. Respondents did not disclose the Yield Spread Premium (YSP) on GFEs to 4 borrowers (5 loans) which resulted in fees of $18,551.26. Respondent Van originated 4 of the 5 loans mentioned above.

1.12 Prohibited Acts. Respondents employed a scheme to mislead or defraud lenders. Respondents presented two loans to two separate lenders simultaneously in an effort to have both loans approved without the lenders knowing of the other outstanding loan. In addition, the applications for both loans were submitted to the lenders as owner occupied and in the name of a third person other than the actual borrower in an effort to obtain a more favorable interest rate and down payment amount.

 1.13 On-Going Investigation. The Department's investigation into the alleged violations of the Act by 19 Respondents continues to date.
