INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to RCW 19.146.220 and RCW 19.146.223, the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Washington (Director) is responsible for the administration of chapter 19.146 RCW, the Mortgage Broker Practices Act (Act)¹. After having conducted an investigation pursuant to RCW 19.146.235, and based upon the facts available as of this Statement of Charges, the Director, through his designee, Division of Consumer Services Director Deborah Bortner, institutes this proceeding and finds as follows:

I. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1.1 Respondents.

A. Washington Financial Group, Inc. d/b/a Guaranty Mortgage Group, LLC, (Respondent Washington Financial) was licensed by the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Washington (Department) to conduct business as a mortgage broker on or about January 7, 2003, and has continued to be licensed to date. Respondent Washington Financial is licensed to conduct the business of a mortgage broker at 1000 Dexter Ave. N., Suite 210, Seattle, Washington.

1 B. Kevin A. Keadle (Respondent K. Keadle) is an owner, President and Designated Broker of 2 Respondent Washington Financial. Respondent K. Keadle was named Designated Broker of Respondent
3 Washington Financial on or about January 7, 2003, and has continued as Designated Broker to date. The 4 Department issued Respondent Keadle a loan originator license on or about November 15, 2006, which he 5 continues to maintain.

6 C. Chris A. Keadle (Respondent C. Keadle) is an owner and Vice-President of Respondent
7 Washington Financial. The Department issued Respondent C. Keadle a loan originator license on or about 8 February 2, 2007, which he continues to maintain.

9 D. Chris Studioso (Respondent Studioso) worked for Respondent Washington Financial at all 10 times relevant to this Statement of Charges. The Department issued Respondent Studioso a loan originator 11 license on or about April 11, 2007, which he continues to maintain.

12 E. Brian Sodorff (Respondent Sodorff) worked for Respondent Washington Financial at all 13 times relevant to this Statement of Charges. The Department issued Respondent Sodorff a loan originator 14 license on or about July 16, 2007, which he continues to maintain.

15 F. Emily Cady (Respondent Cady) worked for Respondent Washington Financial at all times 16 relevant to this Statement of Charges. The Department issued Respondent Cady a loan originator license on or 17 about June 5, 2007, which she continues to maintain.

18 G. Dan Gorman (Respondent Gorman) worked for Respondent Washington Financial at all 19 times relevant to this Statement of Charges. The Department issued Respondent Gorman a loan originator 20 license on or about June 5, 2007, which he continues to maintain.

21 1.2 Examination. On or about November 2, 2009, the Department conducted an examination of the 22 records of Respondent Washington Financial. The Department's examination covered a time frame from 23 September 1, 2007, through September 31, 2009, and included the review of at least 134 loan files that were 24 taken from a sample of customer files that were representative of Respondent Washington Financial's portfolio.
25 As a result of the examination, the Department discovered violations of the Act as outlined below.

1 1.3 Failure to Display Loan Originator's License Number. Respondent Washington Financial did not 2 include the loan originator's license number on at least 25 residential mortgage applications.

3 1.4 Failure to Specify Fees Benefiting the Company. Respondent Washington Financial did not specify
4 on the Good Faith Estimate (GFE) to at least 40 borrowers that Respondent Washington Financial was charging 5 a processing fee, document preparation fee, loan origination fee, underwriting fee or administration fee.

6 1.5 Failure to Deliver Variable Rate Program Disclosures. Respondent Washington Financial did not 7 provide a loan program disclosure identifying the terms of a variable rate mortgage to at least 10 borrowers.
8 The required disclosure must contain the circumstances under which the rate may increase, any limitations on 9 the increase, the effects of the increase, and an example of payment terms resulting from an increase as well as 10 the specific index used for the interest rate.

11 1.6 Failure to Deliver Rate Lock Disclosures. Respondent Washington Financial did not deliver a rate-12 lock disclosure within three-business days of receiving an application from at least 3 borrowers. The rate-lock 13 disclosure indicates whether or not the borrower has chosen to lock the interest rate. In the event the loan is not 14 locked, the disclosure also informs the borrower that the disclosed interest rates and terms are subject to change.

15 1.7 Failure to Correctly Disclose the Yield Spread Premium (YSP). Respondent Washington Financial 16 did not correctly disclose the YSP to at least 40 borrowers on GFEs when it did not describe the fee as "yield 17 spread premium," did not list the YSP in the 800 series of lines on the GFE, and did not disclose the YSP as a 18 dollar amount or dollar range. This is a repeat violation from an examination conducted by the Department in 19 August 2007 of Respondent Washington Financial and was cited in the Report of Examination issued January 20 31, 2008.

21 1.8 Charging Unearned Fees. In at least 21 transactions, the Respondent Washington Financial charged 22 both a mortgage broker fee and a loan origination fee (LOF) on the same transaction for the same borrower.
23 The company cannot charge both a LOF and a mortgage broker fee in the same transaction. In addition,
24 Regulation X, 24 CFR, Part 3500, Appendix A, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA), states that line
25 801 of the HUD-1 is used to record the fees charged by the lender for processing or originating the loan. The

1 following is a list of borrowers that were charged a mortgage broker fee and a loan origination fee on the same 2 transaction:

Total						$41,784.50

17 1.9 Failure to Provide an Accurate Truth-In-Lending Disclosure. Respondent Washington Financial 18 delivered incomplete and inaccurate TIL disclosures to at least 6 borrowers when they did not mark the boxes 19 identifying a variable rate feature or did not complete the bottom section of the TIL disclosure identifying the 20 existence of a prepayment penalty, security interest, assumption policy, and late payment fee.

21 1.10 Failure to Provide Written Explanation for an Increase in Fees. Respondent Washington Financial 22 did not provide a written explanation for an increase in its fees to at least the borrower listed below. Although 23 the company provided a subsequent GFE disclosing the fee increase, the Act requires a clear written 24 explanation stating the reason why fees benefiting the company increased. Both the subsequent GFE and 25 written explanation are required no less than three business days prior to the signing of the loan closing

1 documents. The following borrower did not receive a written explanation for an increase in the company's fees 2 within 3-days prior to the signing of closing documents:

Borrower	Fees Initial GFE	Fees Final GFE/HUD	Reason For Increase	Refund Due
K.B.	$ 495.00	$27,069.12	Mortgage Broker Fee not disclosed on initial GFE	$26,574.12

6 1.11 Failure to Deliver the One-Page Disclosure Summary. Respondent Washington Financial did not 7 demonstrate that at least 3 borrowers received the mandatory one-page disclosure summary identifying certain 8 material aspects of residential mortgage loans within three business days following the receipt of a loan 9 application.

10 1.12 Failure to Deposit Third-Party Fees into a Trust Account. Respondent Washington Financial 11 received checks from escrow that included at least 3 borrowers' payments for third-party Flood Certification 12 fees and subsequently deposited the funds into its general account. Respondent Washington Financial does not 13 maintain or operate a trust account. Although the company paid the fee to the third party, the Act states that all 14 funds received by the company for payments of third-party provider services are considered trust funds and thus 15 must be deposited into a trust account.

16 1.13 Failure to Include License Name or Number with a Trade Name. On all disclosures given to at 17 least 11 borrowers, Respondent Washington Financial identified itself under one of its trade names (Guaranty 18 Mortgage Group, LLC), but did not identify it was connected with the company Washington Financial Group, 19 Inc.

20 1.14 Occupancy Fraud. Respondent Washington Financial, and the loan originators named below, 21 employed a scheme to mislead or defraud mortgage lenders by simultaneously completing a refinance and a 22 purchase transaction on different properties while identifying both properties as owner-occupied. The scheme 23 also involved simultaneously completing two refinance transactions while identifying both properties as owner-24 occupied. The purchase and refinance transactions involved these characteristics: Separate mortgage lenders on 25 the refinance and purchase transactions, residential loan applications (1003) for the purchase transactions signed by the borrowers before the refinances' settlement date, refinanced property shown as a rental on the purchase

1 1003, all loans closed as owner-occupied. The scheme was discovered by examiners who compared mortgage 2 applications, purchase and sale agreements, appraisals, and other documentation. The scheme was employed on 3 at least the following five borrowers:

12 1.15 Income Misrepresentation. Respondents Washington Financial and Studioso engaged in a scheme of 13 inflating a borrower's income in order to obtain a loan commitment from a lender. The scheme involved these 14 characteristics:

- 15 • Two loans completed on two different properties: A cash-out refinance and a purchase
- 16 • Refinance completed as a "fully documented loan"
- 17 • Purchase completed as a "stated income" loan
- Both loans originated simultaneously
- Borrowers could not qualify for purchase with actual income

18 The examiners discovered the scheme from the borrower's fully documented refinance, which contained the 19 borrower's W2s and paystubs. Respondents Washington Financial and Studioso inflated income on at least the 20 following borrower:

Borrower	Originator	Actual Monthly Income from Pay Stub	Monthly Income Listed on Purchase
N.B.	Studioso, Chris	$ 6,666.67	$ 8,300.00

23 1.16 Failure to Conspicuously Disclose Required Information in an Advertisement. Respondents
24 Washington Financial, K. Keadle, and C. Keadle produced at least 3 print advertisements using borrower's 25 current loan information. Respondents Washington Financial, K. Keadle, and C. Keadle disclosed the source of

1 the information but did not do so in the same size and type of font in the remainder of the advertisement. They 2 also disclosed that it is not affiliated with the borrower's lender but not in the same size and type of fonts in the 3 remainder of the advertisement.

4 1.17 Advertising Variable Interest Rates. Respondents Washington Financial, K. Keadle, and C. Keadle 5 produced print advertisements for adjustable rate mortgages that did not clearly state that the rate is subject to 6 change after consummation and the limited term to which the initial rates apply. Although the advertisements
7 contain the phrase "5/1 ARM", this phrase neither indicates that the rate could change nor gives a clear 8 indication of the limited term as required by Regulation Z.

9 1.18 Disclosing Additional Credit Terms in Advertisements. Respondents Washington Financial, K.
10 Keadle, and C. Keadle did not disclose the terms of repayment and down payment amounts in print 11 advertisements. The advertisements disclosed a payment amount but did not disclose the terms of repayment or 12 down payment amount.

13 1.19 Suggesting Association with Government Agencies. Respondents Washington Financial, K. Keadle, 14 and C. Keadle produced print advertisements that represents it was affiliated with the government. In the 15 advertisement it states: "Ask For a Government Loan Advisor." The statement represents and implies that 16 Respondent Washington Financial has a government loan advisor working for it. The Act strictly prohibits 17 advertisements that suggest affiliations with state or federal agencies when no such affiliations exist.

18 1.20 Prohibited Advertising. Respondents Washington Financial, K. Keadle, and C. Keadle produced print 19 advertisements, which stated: "Your Credit Status Does not Matter as Long as Your Mortgage Payments Have 20 Been Made on Time." At least one borrower who received this advertisement applied for a loan and was denied 21 due to the applicant's low credit score per the lender's underwriting guidelines.

22 1.21 Failure to Disclose the Yield Spread Premium on the GFE. Respondent Washington Financial did 23 not disclose the YSP on the GFE as required by Regulation X, part 3500, Appendix B, Illustrations of 24 Requirements of RESPA, fact situation 13. Further, RESPA, section 3500.7(c) requires disclosure of all 25

1 charges that a borrower can expect to pay upon settlement. At least the following borrower received a GFE that 2 did not disclose the YSP:

Borrower	Application Date	Settlement Date	YSP Amount
J.P.C.	03/18/08	05/02/08	$ 2,888.96

5 1.22 Failure to Provide Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure. Respondent Washington Financial did 6 not provide evidence that a borrower received the initial home equity line of credit disclosure as required by 7 Regulation Z, 12 CFR, Section 226.5b at the time of application.

8 1.23 On-Going Investigation. The Department's investigation into the alleged violations of the Act by 9 Respondents continues to date.

10 II. GROUNDS FOR ENTRY OF ORDER

11 2.1 Prohibited Acts. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondents are in 20 13 and WAC 208-660-430(5) for failing to properly disclose the Yield Spread Premium on the Good Faith
