STATE OF WASHINGTON DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS DIVISION OF CONSUMER SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINING Whether there has been a violation of the Uniform Money Services Act of Washington by: No.: C-13-1195-14-CO01

CONSENT AGREEMENT

NATIONWIDE BIWEEKLY ADMINISTRATION, INC., and DANIEL S. LIPSKY, Principal,

Respondents.

COMES NOW the Director of the Department of Financial Institutions (Director), through his designee Deborah Bortner, Division Director, Division of Consumer Services, Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. (Respondent Nationwide), and Daniel S. Lipsky (Respondent Lipsky), and finding that the issues raised in the above-captioned matter may be economically and efficiently settled, agree to the entry of this Consent Agreement. This Consent Agreement is entered pursuant to Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 19.230, the Uniform Money Services Act (Act), and RCW 34.05.060 of the Administrative Procedure Act, based on the following:

AGREEMENT

The Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Consumer Services (Department) and Respondents have agreed upon a basis for resolution of the matters alleged in Statement of Charges No. C-13-1195-13-SC01 (Statement of Charges), entered August 21, 2013, (copy attached hereto). Pursuant to RCW 19.230.270 and RCW 34.05.060, Respondents hereby agree to the Department's entry of this Consent Agreement and further agree that the matters alleged in the above-captioned matter may be economically and efficiently settled by entry of this Consent Agreement.

Based upon the foregoing:

A. Jurisdiction. It is AGREED that the Department has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the activities discussed herein.

CONSENT AGREEMENT C-13-1195-14-CO01 NATIONWIDE BIWEEKLY ADMINISTRATION, INC., DANIEL S. LIPSKY

- B. Waiver of Hearing. It is AGREED that Respondents hereby waive any right they have to a hearing and any and all administrative and judicial review of the issues raised in this matter or of the resolution reached herein. Accordingly, Respondents, by their signatures below, withdraw their applications for an adjudicative hearing.
- C. Nature of Agreement. It is AGREED that this Consent Agreement does not constitute evidence or an admission of any issues of fact suggesting fault or wrongdoing by Respondents or any violations of any laws. This Consent Agreement fully resolves the allegations in the Statement of Charges, and bars any claims or actions against Respondent Nationwide or Respondent Lipsky arising out of or related to the alleged conduct described in the allegations in the Statement of Charges that may have occurred prior to entry of this Consent Agreement.
- D. Money Transmitter License Required. It is AGREED that Respondents understand that in order to engage in the business of a money transmitter in the state of Washington, Respondent Nationwide must obtain a money transmitter license under the Act or qualify for an exclusion from licensing as delineated in the Act.
- E. Financial Literacy and Education. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.233, the Director may accept payments to the Department for purposes of financial literacy and education. Accordingly, in further compromise and in consideration of the additional terms set forth herein, it is AGREED that upon entry of this Consent Agreement Respondent Nationwide shall pay $80,000 to the Department for purposes of financial literacy and education.
- F. Investigation Fee. It is AGREED that Respondent Nationwide shall pay an investigation fee to the Department in the amount of $3,500, upon entry of this Consent Agreement. It is further AGREED that the payment for Financial Literacy and Education and the Investigation Fee shall be paid together in one cashier's check in the amount of $83,500, made payable to the "Washington"

State Treasurer."

G. Application for Money Transmitter License. It is AGREED that the Department and Respondent Nationwide have resolved any outstanding issues regarding the issuance of Respondent Nationwide's pending money transmitter license application, submitted to the Department on or about December 29, 2012. This license shall be issued on the same date as execution of this Consent Agreement by all parties.

H. Records Retention. It is AGREED that Respondent Nationwide, its officers, employees, and agents shall maintain records in compliance with the Act and provide the Director with the location of the books, records, and other information relating to Respondent Nationwide's business, and the name, address, and telephone number of the individual responsible for maintenance of such records in compliance with the Act. Nothing in this Consent Agreement shall limit Respondent Nationwide's obligation to comply with each and every applicable record maintenance requirement of the Act.

- I. Non-Compliance with Agreement. It is AGREED that Respondents understand that failure to abide by the terms and conditions of this Consent Agreement may result in further legal action by the Director. In the event of such legal action, Respondents may be responsible to reimburse the Director for the cost incurred in pursuing such action, including but not limited to, attorney fees.
- J. Voluntarily Entered. It is AGREED that Respondents have voluntarily entered into this Consent Agreement, which is effective when signed by the Director's designee.
- K. Release. It is AGREED that upon issuance of a money transmitter license, Respondents waive, release, and forever discharge the Department, and its employees, agents, attorneys, and representatives from any and all causes of action, in law or equity, which Respondents may claim to have arisen out of the above-captioned matter, including, but not limited to, any cause of action which Respondents may claim to have arisen out of any statements, actions, or omissions connected

STATE OF WASHINGTON DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS CONSUMER SERVICES DIVISION

IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINING Whether there has been a violation of the Uniform Money Services Act of Washington by:

NO. C-13-1195-13-SC01

NATIONWIDE BIWEEKLY ADMINISTRATION, INC., and DANIEL S. LIPSKY, Principal,

STATEMENT OF CHARGES and NOTICE OF INTENTION TO ENTER AN ORDER TO DENY LICENSE, PROHIBIT FROM INDUSTRY, IMPOSE FINE, ORDER RESTITUTION, AND COLLECT INVESTIGATION FEE

Respondents.

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to RCW 19.230.130 and RCW 19.230.310, the Director of the State of Washington Department of Financial Institutions (Director) is responsible for the administration of chapter 19.230 RCW, the Uniform Money Services Act (Act). After having conducted an investigation pursuant to RCW 19.230.130 and WAC 208-690-180, and based upon the facts available as of the date of this Statement of Charges and Notice of Intention to Enter an Order to Deny License, Prohibit from Industry, Impose Fine, Order Restitution, and Collect Investigation Fee (Statement of Charges), the Director, through his designee, Division of Consumer Services Director Deborah Bortner, institutes this proceeding and finds as follows:

I. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1.1 Respondents.

(a) Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. (Respondent Nationwide) is a money transmitter with its corporate office at: 855 Lower Bellbrook Road, Xenia, OH 45385. Respondent Nationwide is registered as a money transmitter with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network of the U.S. Department of the Treasury. Respondent Nationwide is approved for a license to engage in the business of a money transmitter in at least 19 states. On or about December 29, 2012, Respondent Nationwide submitted an application to the State of Washington Department of Financial Institutions (Department) to engage in the business of a money transmitter, and the application is pending. Respondent Nationwide has never been approved for a license by the Department to engage in the business of a money transmitter.

- (b) Daniel S. Lipsky (Respondent Lipsky) is the President, Secretary, Treasurer, Director, and Owner of Respondent Nationwide.
- 1.2 Unlicensed Activity. Between on or about April 21, 2003, and the date of this Statement of Charges, Respondent Nationwide engaged in the business of money transmission, or advertised, solicited, or held itself out as providing money transmission for persons in the state of Washington. Respondent Nationwide sent postal mail solicitations to residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington advertising its mortgage payment program. Respondent Nationwide's postal mail solicitations induced residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington to enroll in its mortgage payment program by telephone. Respondent collected setup and debit fees from residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington who enrolled in its mortgage payment program.
- 1.3 Consumer Complaints. At least 13 residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington filed complaints against Respondent Nationwide between on or about March 14, 2007, and the date of this Statement of Charges. Each of these residential mortgage loan borrowers alleged they received a postal mail solicitation from Respondent Nationwide inducing them to enter into an agreement with Respondent Nationwide to transmit mortgage payments. At least five residential mortgage loan borrowers alleged that Respondent Nationwide mislead them into believing it was affiliated with their residential mortgage loan lender, servicer, owner, or government agencies. At least five residential mortgage loan borrowers alleged that Respondent Nationwide mislead them as to the terms of its mortgage payment program's debit and payment schedule. At least seven residential mortgage loan borrowers alleged that Respondent Nationwide mislead them as to the terms of its mortgage payment program's setup fee. At least five residential mortgage loan borrowers alleged that Respondent Nationwide mislead them as to the terms of its mortgage payment program's cancellation policy.

- 1.4 Misleading and False Representations. Between on or about April 21, 2003, and the date of this Statement of Charges, Respondent Nationwide and Respondent Lipsky made false and misleading representations to residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington, by:
- (a) falsely representing that Respondent Nationwide was associated with borrowers' residential mortgage loan lenders, servicers, owners, or government agencies;
- (b) falsely representing that Respondent Nationwide transmitted residential mortgage loan payments on borrowers' behalf on a biweekly basis through its mortgage payment program when it actually transmitted such payments on a less frequent basis;
- (c) falsely representing the amount of interest borrowers would save by repaying their residential mortgage loans through Respondent Nationwide's mortgage payment program; and
- (d) falsely representing the cost of Respondent Nationwide's mortgage payment program to borrowers by misrepresenting that there was, "no upfront fee," when borrowers actually incurred debt for a non-refundable setup fee equal to the amount of one biweekly debit upon entering the mortgage payment program.

1.5 Prior Enforcement Actions. Regulatory agencies in other jurisdictions have initiated enforcement actions against Respondent Nationwide on at least five occasions as follows:

- (a) On or about September 20, 2002, the State of Illinois Office of Banks and Real Estate, Bureau of Banks and Trust Companies issued Order to Cease and Desist No. 2002-BBTC-70, finding, among other things, that Respondent Nationwide's solicitation materials violated applicable law and ordering Respondent Nationwide to cease and desist.
- (b) On or about April 29, 2005, the State of Ohio Office of the Attorney General and Respondent Lipsky, on behalf of Respondent Nationwide, entered Assurance of Voluntary Compliance No. 244238, in which Respondent Nationwide agreed, among other things, to ensure that its advertising, solicitation materials, and disclosure policy complied with applicable law.
- (c) On or about June 9, 2008, the State of Ohio Office of the Attorney General filed Complaint No. 2008CV0678 against Respondent Nationwide in the Court of Common Pleas, Greene County, Ohio, alleging, among other things, that Respondent Nationwide's advertising, solicitation materials, and disclosure policy violated applicable law and the terms of Assurance of Voluntary Compliance No. 244238. On or about February 10, 2010, the Court of Common Pleas, Greene County, Ohio, entered Agreed Entry No. 2008CV0678, permanently enjoining Respondent Nationwide from violating applicable law relating to its advertising, solicitation materials, and disclosure policy.
- (d) On or about October 21, 2011, the State of New Hampshire Banking Department and Respondent Lipsky, on behalf of Respondent Nationwide, entered Consent Order No. 08-241, finding, among other things, that Respondent Nationwide, engaged in unlicensed money transmitter activity and failed to ensure its advertising and solicitation materials complied with applicable law.

(d) knowingly making, publishing, or disseminating any false, deceptive, or misleading information in the provision of money services as alleged in Paragraph 1.4.

2.3 Character and General Fitness. Based on the Factual Allegations set forth in Section I above, Respondent Nationwide fails to meet the requirements of RCW 19.230.070 and WAC 208-690-070, by failing to demonstrate character and general fitness such as to indicate that it is in the interest of the public to permit the applicant to engage in the business of providing money transmission services.

III. AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE SANCTIONS

- 3.1 Authority to Deny License. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.070 and WAC 208-690-070, the Director may deny a money transmitter license application if the Director determines that the character and general fitness of the applicant indicate that it is not in the interest of the public to permit the applicant to engage in the business of providing money transmission services.
- 3.2 Prohibit from Industry. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.250, the Director may issue an order to prohibit a person from continuing to engage in providing money services, and to prohibit from participation in the affairs of any licensee or authorized delegate, or both, any executive officer, person in control, or employee of the person for any violation of RCW 19.230.030.
- 3.3 Authority to Impose Fine. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.250 and RCW 19.230.290, the Director may issue an order to impose civil money penalties on a person for any violation of the Act or a rule adopted under the Act, not to exceed $100 per day for each day the violation is outstanding.
- 3.4 Authority to Order Restitution. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.250, the Director may issue an order to compel a person to pay restitution to damaged parties for any violation of RCW 19.230.030.

3.5 Authority to Collect Investigation Fee. Pursuant to RCW 19.230.130(2), RCW 19.230.290, RCW 19.230.320(1)(c) and (2), WAC 208-690-170, and WAC 208-690-180(2), the Department may collect the costs of investigations and examinations. The fee will be calculated at the rate of $75 per hour.

IV. NOTICE OF INTENT TO ENTER ORDER

Respondents' violations of the provisions of chapter 19.230 RCW and chapter 208-690 WAC, as set forth in the above Factual Allegations and Grounds for Entry of Order, constitute a basis for the entry of an Order under RCW 19.230.070, RCW 19.230.130, RCW 19.230.250, RCW 19.230.290, RCW 19.230.320, and RCW 19.230.340. Therefore, it is the Director's intention to ORDER that:

- 4.1 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc.'s money transmitter license application be denied;
- 4.2 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. and Respondent Daniel S. Lipsky be prohibited from participation in the conduct of the affairs of any money transmitter or currency exchanger subject to licensure by the Department, or any authorized delegate, or both, for a period of five (5) years;
- 4.3 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. and Respondent Daniel S. Lipsky jointly and severally pay a fine of $150,000;
- 4.4 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. and Respondent Daniel S. Lipsky jointly and severally pay restitution in the form of all fees collected by Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. from residential mortgage loan borrowers in the state of Washington during the period in which it engaged in the business of a money transmitter in the state of Washington without being approved by the Department for a money transmitter license, in an amount to be determined at hearing;
- 4.5 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. and Respondent Daniel S. Lipsky jointly and severally pay an investigation fee which as of the date of this Statement of Charges totals $3,975, calculated at $75 per hour for 53 hours to date; and
- 4.6 Respondent Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. and Respondent Daniel S. Lipsky maintain records in compliance with the Act and provide the Department with the location of the books, records and other information relating to Respondents' money transmitter business, and the name, address and telephone number of the individual responsible for maintenance of such records in compliance with the Act.
