

Regarding the licensing of home offices: I highly encourage DFI to put this into the upcoming rule-making:

The only reason a mortgage loan originator can engage in the activities that require their licensure from a location that is NOT licensed is when they have to, for the convenience of the borrower, meet with or talk with the borrower from some other location. Otherwise, a licensed MLO must conduct their business from a license location.

Jillayne Schlicke, M.A.
CE Forward, Inc.
National Association of Mortgage Fiduciaries
206-931-2241
<http://www.ceforward.com>
<http://mortgagefiduciaries.com>

NAMF is an NMLS Approved Course Provider #1400068